

MonAMI Training Course Syllabus	Educative Graphical Games For Seniors and Children Herlany, 10 June 2008
--	---

Educative Graphical Games for Seniors and Children
Course name	Educative Graphical Games for Seniors and Children
Description	The objective is to present different types of graphical computer games, mostly in Flash software aimed to be used for entertainment, additional education programmes, rehabilitation, socialisation of grandparents and grand children. Games are available on the Internet. Topics to be addressed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Goals, target group</li> <li>• Internet games - game example: Creative pictures</li> <li>• Problems for blind and partially sighted people - game example: Fairy tales about post marks with accessible functions adjustable for visually impaired</li> <li>• Educational games - game example: Oceans and continents</li> </ul>
Instructor / organisation	Dusan Simsik, Robert Honcariv, Alena Galajdova, Technical University of Kosice, Slovakia
Trainee profile	ICT and e-Inclusion Experts from New EU Countries
Language of instruction	English
Location	Workshop for ICT and eInclusion Experts from New European Countries TUKE Educational Facility, Herlany, Slovakia
Prerequisites	Expertise in 1 or more fields: Assistive Technology, Accessibility, Home Automation, Sensors, Elderly Care, Internet games
Schedule	10 June            17:20 – 18:00